About Selina

Selina Chung is a registered educational psychologist with more than a decade of experience working with children of all ages spanning from kindergarten to secondary school stages. Selina has extensive experience in conducting psycho-educational assessments, developing individualised educational plan and providing interventions to children with developmental delay, intellectual disability, specific learning difficulties, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder, autism spectrum disorder and mood disorders. Selina is also experienced in helping students with special needs to apply for support services such as early training provided by Social Welfare Department and special examination accommodations in school and public examinations (e.g. HKDSE).

Apart from working with students, Selina provides consultation, training and support to teachers and parents. She is passionate in helping parents effectively manage challenging behaviours and enhance positive parenting. She is a certified facilitator/practitioner of parenting programs including Positive Parenting Program (Triple P), Circle of Security® (COS) and Tuning In To Kids (TIK).
